Public Education NOW: “Reform,” RESISTance, & Solutions in New York State

Speakers:
Carol Burris - Principal, New York State Principals
Julie Gorlewski & Barbara Madeloni - Teacher Educators
Leonie Haimson & Karen Sprowal, - Class Size Matters
Ken Mitchell - Lower Hudson Council of School Superintendents
Monty Neill - FairTest
Bianca Tanis - Special Education Teacher
Katie Zahedi - Principal, Red Hook School District
Diana Zavala - Change the Stakes

Co-Sponsored by:
SUNY New Paltz:
Humanistic-Multicultural Education Program & Departments of Elementary Education, Educational Studies, Secondary Education, Sociology and CAS
ReThinking Testing-MidHudson Chapter
NYS Allies for Public Education

Wednesday, February 19th, 2014
@ SUNY New Paltz
6:30pm
Coykendall Science Bidg Auditorium
Snow date 2/20/14
in Lecture Center 100

This panel discussion will address current educational policies and their effects on students, educators, parents and communities. Speakers will discuss the latest developments in resistance to these policies as well as actions to reclaim public education for the public good.

Speakers will focus on: excessive high stakes testing; Common Core Learning Standards; teacher evaluation by student test score; student privacy; the unprecedented influence of private corporations in public education; standardization of teacher education; and financial costs to school districts and taxpayers, among other topics.

For More Information, contact Nancy Schniedewind, (845)257-2827
or schniedn@newpaltz.edu
Visit: http://rethinkingtestingmidhudson.blogspot.com